

The question was: what traits/characteristics/skills do you look for in a department head for EECS? Name your top three, one per question.